

The Diary of Anne Frank

February 17th

$70

Hiding in an Amsterdam attic with her family and others, a young Jewish girl writes in her diary of her hopes, aspirations and observations of life under Nazi occupation. Caught up in a world of hate she couldn't comprehend, Anne Frank grows as a young woman, ready for life and love just at the moment her dreams come to an end. At the St. Louis Repertory Theater experience this Tony Award and Pulitzer Prize honored drama about hope, courage and love in the darkest places and times.

Lunch at Schniedhorst Coffee House before the performance.

There are only 20 tickets for this touching performance
