

Where the imagination runs wild...

July 28th

$45 pp for the first 2 people in your group

$20 for each additional child

Bring the kids and grandkids to scurry through a treehouse, squirm through an underground tunnel and stroll through the belly of a whale. Swim through thousands of rubber balls. Check out the ever-expanding collection of architectural relics and vintage opera posters. Explore the wonder of a detailed miniature train display. Wander through the Museum of Mirth, Mystery and Mayhem which depicts the innocence and cheesiness of the carnival midway and roadside attractions. MonstroCity is the most monumental monstrous montage of monkey bars in the world. The Enchanted Caves offer explorers of all ages an opportunity to walk, climb and crawl through the mind of a master artist.

Pizza and salad buffet is included at the museum

Note to Parents & Grandparents: There are 2 optional areas you can visit.

The RoofTop features a restored four-story Ferris wheel, a rope ramp slide, a Splash Pond, a massive rope swing, and up-close views with the famed City Museum Schoolbus and Praying Mantis. Rouge roosters have been known to strut past surprised visitors. Additional cost is $5 per person and kids can get wet.

World Aquarium is a 13,500 square ft. aquatic waterworld. Get up-close and personal with more than 10,000 creatures. Join sharks, stingrays, and seahorses in an underwater adventure. Additional cost is $6 per person.
